OVER MISS CASSELL

Miss Bjurstedt Plays Best Game of Her Brilliant Career and Wins, 6-0, 6-1.

Miss Molla Bjurstedt, the stalwart Norwegian girl, who has won a host of tennis titles and tournaments since her arrival in this country five years ago-demonstrated clearly yesterday after-neon in the invitation tournament on the courts of the Heights Casino, Brooklyn that she has not yet reached the top of her play. In defeating Miss Clare Cas-sell in the round leading into the semi-finals at 6-0, 6-1, she played the best game of her career, and experts who saw the contest declared she was improving her game rather than going back. Her shots were more dazzling and elusive than ever before, her fast overhand strokes possessed the speed of a rifle shot and her easy lobs sent the ball across the net at a pace usually travelled by a feather before a light

The rapidity and power she put behind her drives and volleys fairly over-whelmed her rival and were it not for a bit of carelessness in the opening game of the second set Miss Bjurstedt would Miss Cassell was able to discover. Miss Bjurstedt ran through the first set without giving her opponent a chance

NORSE GIRL VICTOR HIGH LIGHTS AND SHADOWS RICKARD TO BUILD IN ALL SPHERES OF SPORT HUGE SPORTING CLUB

N Saturday afternoon in this city Jack Dempsey will sign with Tex Plans Greater Madison Square Rickard to fight Jess Willard on July 4. Before Dempsey puts his signature to the papers he will have to show Rickard his contract with his manager or managers. For many months report has had it that while Jack Kearns is the active manager of Dempsey his silent partner is Jack Curley, who once helped Tom Jones manage Willard and who ran the Willard-Johnson fight in Havana. Rickard last Tuesday questioned Kearns about the Curley proposition and Kearns insisted that nobody but he himself had any interest in the management of Dempsey. For some reason best known to himself Rickard would not relish Curley's having anything to do with Dempsey and so Rickard will see the papers. these actually will prove that Curley is not a silent partner in the Dempsey syndicate we know not.

The report that Curley had become interested financially in Dempsey Despite the extra labors thrust upon gained wide circulation after Dempsey had won on a foul from Carl Morris him in the promotion of the big fight in Buffalo about a year ago. Curley at that time was managing Morris. Tex still finds a little time to inspect After Dempsey had beaten the big Oklaheman all over the ring and had various sites for the proposed building forced Morris to foul in order to save himself from a knockout Curley This would not be necessary were it immediately washed his hands of Morris and became a stanch booster for Dempsey. Instead of rushing to the telegraph wires, as all well trained Dempsey. Instead of rushing to the telegraph wires, as all well trained managers are wont to do, with an excuse for Morris Curley sent out nothing that the mornium for Dempsey, praising him as a second Ketchel for aggressives, and the next champion of the world. They do say that Curley bought a partnership in Dempsey that very night. If he did he proved hought a partnership in Dempsey that very night. If he did he proved hought a partnership in Dempsey that very night. If he did he proved hought a wise man and a prudent fistic investor.

Rickard yesterday refterated his decision to stage the bout on any soil where he would be likely to get a good return on his investment, even if it involved limiting the bout to eight or ten rounds without a decision.

Tree got to look out for mysil first? said Rickard. Of course, self-like out Willard shall be best protected in a twenty round fight to a decision.
